

New Spark Plug Lead for MAN[®] E28 Series Engines with M18 Cylinder Heads and Safety Element

In its sales bulletin VM 23 02, MAN[®] has provided information on the series launch of a cylinder head with M18 spark plug thread and an additional safety element. The element serves as a safety device and is intended to prevent the spark plug and spark plug lead from being ejected in the event of damage.

To meet this requirement, MOTORTECH now offers a spark plug lead adapted to this safety device and the cylinder head (MAN[®] P/N 51.03101-6956). This is also suitable for use with all common spark plugs with M18 thread.
